

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT

BILLERICA DOG PARK

The within Memorandum of Agreement is executed this 12 day of June, 2014 by and between the Town of Billerica, a municipal corporation and political subdivision of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, acting by and through its Board of Selectmen (the "Town"), and the Friends of the Billerica Dog Park Committee (the "Committee"), a private entity, relative to the development of a recreational Dog Park facility in the Town of Billerica.

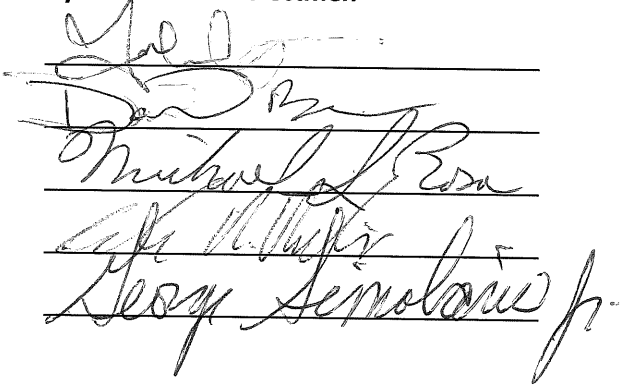

1. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, the Town, by and through its Recreation Department, will assume responsibility for the development, oversight and operation of a recreational Dog Park to be located on a parcel of land owned by the Town and identified in the description appended to this document as Attachment A.
2. The Town will assume responsibility and liability for construction, maintenance, repair and operation of the Dog Park, and will secure, as it may deem appropriate, insurance coverage to protect the interests of the Town.
3. The Committee shall raise $39,500.00 for the start-up costs of the Dog Park. These funds shall be deposited in a special revenue/gift account established pursuant to G.L. c. 44, §53A by the Town for Dog Park development, maintenance and operation purposes (the "Dog Park gift account"), and shall be expended for such purposes upon authorization of the Board of Selectmen. Any interest accrued to this account shall be added thereto and may be expended for purposes authorized hereby. No improvement to the subject parcel or other use or operation of the Dog Park shall be commenced by the Town until said start-up funds are raised and deposited into the gift account.
4. The Committee shall, in addition, raise $10,600.00 to fund the first fiscal year's maintenance and operation of the Dog Park. Said funds shall be deposited into the Dog Park gift account on or before July 1 of said first fiscal year of operation. No improvement to the subject parcel or other use or operation of the Dog Park shall be commenced by the Town until said first year maintenance and operation funds are raised and deposited into the gift account.
5. For each fiscal year thereafter, the Committee shall raise an amount necessary, in the estimation of the Recreation Department, for prospective annual maintenance and operation costs. Said funds shall also be deposited in the Dog Park gift account for this purpose.
6. The Committee shall post a performance bond with the Town of Billerica named as obligee to secure the costs and expenses related to removal of the fence and any other improvements constructed for the Dog Park in the event use of the Dog Park is abandoned or discontinued for any reason. The initial amount of this bond shall be determined by the Town and may be modified or amended, from time to time, as the Town deems appropriate.
7. The Town reserves the right to cease operation of the Dog Park for any reason.

8. The Committee expressly acknowledges that the Dog Park shall not be constructed and opened until the funding obligations of the Committee set forth in paragraphs three and four herein have been fulfilled.
9. The Dog Park site, as described in Attachment A, is hereby designated by the Selectmen as an off-leash area.
10. The initial edition of Rules and Regulations relative to the Dog Park have been appended to this document as Attachment B. Said Rules and Regulations may be amended by the Recreation Department and the Board of Selectmen as they deem appropriate.
11. The Committee shall serve an advisory and stewardship role to the Selectmen and Recreation Department with respect to all aspects of the development, maintenance and operation of the Dog Park, and shall make recommendations to the Selectmen regarding the expenditure of funds from the Dog Park gift account.
